Diversity Roadmap

Computing

Year 6

Alan Turing: English computer scientist who was instrumental in breaking the Enigma code in WW2.

Dr Christine Farion: a designer specialising in wearable technology

Abdi Dirye: a Somalian computer scientist who has founded tech start-ups and coding camps.

Year 5

Karen Spärck Jones: a British computer scientist who was responsible for some of the technology behind search engines.

Shwetal Shah: an Indian technologist who has headed up an online platform which teaches coding in a creative and game-based way.

Dorcas Muthoni: the Kenyan founder and CEO of a specialist coputer software company designed to transform African society.

Year 4

Sir Tim Berners-Lee: an English computer scientist best known as the inventor of the World Wide Web

Ada Lovelace: widely considered as the first computer programmer

John Henry Thompson: invented a programming language that forms the basis of many video games

Year 3

Peter Lord & David Sproxton: creators of Aardman Animations, who created Wallace and Gromit.

Juliana Rotich: a Kenyan IT professional who has created leading software for collecting and mapping
Information

Bill Gates: an American businessman who co-founded Microsoft, who brought computers and desktop publishing to the masses

Year 2

Frans Lanting: a world-renowned Dutch nature photographer

Fei-Fei- Li: a Chinese-American Artificial Intelligence expert

Thomas Bangalter and Guy-Manuel de Homem-Christo: formed the French electronic music duo Daft Punk in 1993.

Anne-Marie Imafidon MBE: a British-Nigerian computer scientist who works to promote women in STEM

David Hockney: one of the most influential English artists of the 20th century.

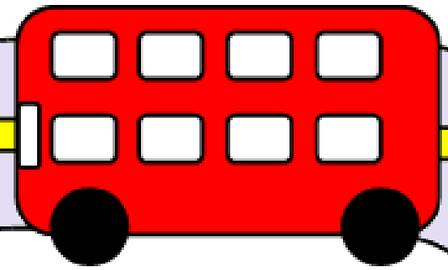

Shigeru Miyamoto: a Japanese video game designer

Year 1

EYFS

Nursery

Satoshi Tajiri: a Japanese video game designer best known for being the creator of Pokemon.

Reception

Katherine Johnson: an African-American 'computer' whose calculations made significant contributions to successful space flights.

ST MARY MAGDALENE & ST STEPHEN'S CE PRIMARY SCHOOL

